Attention Peer Learning Groups

As your peer learning group begins to plan for the upcoming year, CBF/GA would like to offer the opportunity to apply for additional funding beyond grants given through CBF/National. With the expiration of the Lily Grant and new changes in funding, we are partnering with CBF/National to assist your groups in meeting your goals for the 2011-2012 season. Requests must be submitted no later than Friday, September 30. Click here for more information.

Attention Handbell Choirs

CBF/GA is in the planning stages for a handbell festival to be held Friday-Saturday, April 27-28, 2012. This handbell festival would give opportunities for fellowship and music growth. If your choir is interested in participating in this new CBF/GA ministry, please contact Laura Foushee at lfoushee@cbfga.org with basic details about your handbell group. As of now, we are planning with adults in mind; however, please include information about any children/youth-aged handbell choirs in your church.

CBF/GA sponsors three collegiate ministries on the campuses of Georgia Tech in Atlanta, University of Georgia in Athens, and Mercer University in Macon. These CSFs are part of a larger network in the southeast. Each year we look forward to involving new students in our groups, so updated information on rising college freshmen is important in continuing this ministry. To help with this need, CBF/National has created a survey to find out where recently graduated seniors are attending college in the fall. To fill out the survey, please visit <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/PL9968P>.

For more information on the CSFs in Georgia, go to <http://cbfga.org/53/College>, or contact Laura Foushee at lfoushee@cbfga.org.

CBF/GA Disaster Response

CBF/GA is collecting names of people who are interested in disaster response for a mailing list. CBF/GA is also looking for information and photos on where our churches are working and what they are doing to help with the storm-affected areas. Please contact Kelley Dixson at kdixson@cbfga.org or 478-742-1191, ext. 26, to be added to the mailing list or share your stories. Click here to sign up online. Click here for more information on CBF/GA disaster response.

CBF/GA on the Road

Our coordinator, Frank Broome, and associate coordinator, Laura Foushee, are always available to preach or update your church on how God is working through our fellowship of Baptist churches. For a current list of engagements for Frank and Laura, or to contact one of them about speaking in your church during worship or at other gatherings, click here.

From Our Churches

Sunday Evening Series at FBC Forsyth

FBC Forsyth will be holding a Sunday evening series of talks about the future of Christianity and Baptists starting Sunday, September 11. Each talk begins at 6:15 p.m. and should last around an hour. Area churches and individuals are invited to attend. Click here for a schedule. For more information, contact Darrell Watson at pastorfb@bellsouth.net or 478-256-0277.

God continues to move in the guiding and planning of a new and exciting initiative for CBF/GA. Next summer, through a spiritual retreat, ministry projects, and local outreach, high school students and adults from various CBF/GA churches are seeking to partner with Korean students at a Baptist church in South Korea for a cultural, spiritual, and missional immersion. This partnership is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, July 22-Wednesday, August 1, 2012, and the price is the cost of a plane ticket (cost to be finalized at a later date). If you have questions or need more information or registration forms, please contact Philip Vestal at 706-556-6439 or pv@harlembaptist.org. The deadline for registration and deposit of $100 is Monday, October 1.

Men's Contemplative Retreat

Jim Dant, pastor of Highland Hills Baptist Church, Macon, will be leading a men's retreat at the Monastery of the Holy Spirit in Conyers on Monday-Friday, November 14-18. The retreat will focus on struggling with nature, families, God, and the world. For more information on this time of discussion, learning, and reflection, click here.

Friends

New Baptist Covenant II

The New Baptist Covenant will gather together Thursday-Saturday, November 17-19. What began four years ago with a small group of committed Baptist leaders is accelerating into a thriving grassroots movement striving to live by Jesus' Luke 4 mandate to "bring good news to the poor, proclaim release to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

This fall the movement will use some of the latest technology to bring NBC II to multiple cities. Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist Church, Atlanta, will serve as NBC II's anchor site, hosting worship services and breakout sessions that will be broadcast via satellite to various host cities across the nation. Host cities will provide additional programming and coordinate a day of local missions opportunities on Saturday, November 19. For more information, visit here.

From the Baptist Center for Ethics

The tenth anniversary of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks falls on a Sunday. EthicsDaily.com has updated its free worship resources focused on observing this date. Click here to learn more.

The Baptist Center for Ethics will be screening its documentary, Gospel Without Borders, at Smoke Rise Baptist Church, Stone Mountain, at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, October 11. For more information on this documentary, click here.

2011 Distinguished Lecture Series

The Turner Ministry Resource Center of the Pastoral Institute in Columbus will hold its 2011 Distinguished Lecture Series event on Monday, September 12, in the Pastoral Institute's Community Room. Brett Younger will be the guest speaker at this day-long preaching conference for ministers and chaplains. Click here for more information.
