→ In Sympathy

The CBF/GA mourns the passing of Jack Snell, director of global field ministries. A memorial service will be held Sat., Oct. 13 at Second Ponce de Leon Baptist Church in Atlanta, Ga. A reception will begin at 10 a.m. with a service to follow.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions be made to the CBF Offering for Global Missions, which supports the ministries of CBF field personnel around the world.

To contribute to the CBF Offering in Jack's memory, call (800) 352-8741. To make a contribution by mail, send your check payable to CBF to Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, P.O. Box 101699, Atlanta, GA., 30392. Designate "CBF Offering for Global Missions in Memory of Jack Snell" in the memo line.

→ Are You Looking to Serve?

The CBF/GA Nominating Committee will begin work early this fall. We will need to fill seven regular CBF/GA Coordinating Council positions and elect a moderator-elect. We also need to nominate one position for the National Council. If you have persons to nominate for any of these positions, please send us their name, church, and contact informations.

Individuals who serve on the council must either contribute to CBF/GA or be a member of a church that does and be willing to serve for three years. We want individuals who are committed to Christ and who feel strongly about helping CBF/GA serve individuals and churches. It is important that the persons nominated be able to attend the five yearly council meetings. It is also helpful if they have internet access to email since a good bit of our committee work is done over the internet.

Please email Frank Broome at fbroome@cbfga.org by October 19th with your nominees.

11 on Eleven news

On September 15, over 140 people served in twelve mission sites. While some cleaned up beaches and neighborhoods, others served in apartment complexes and food pantries. Ten different states were represented along with ten sponsors. Click here to see pictures and read accounts from some of these sites.
