Christmas Consumers

Click here to read a blog entry by Keith Vaughn who is going against the flow this year.

Reverend Billy and the Church of Stop Shopping Choir's crusade against consumerism offers a new Christmas carol to sing: stop buying stuff for the sake of buying! From exorcising the demons of the Wal-Mart headquarters to an arrest in Disneyland for proclaiming Mickey Mouse as the "anti-Christ," Reverend Billy dramatically makes the point that Americans have lost their way - and their souls - to consumerism. As Reverend Billy points out, our "wants" come at the expense of others' needs, especially in third-world countries where workers are paid pennies a day in terrible environments working extremely long shifts. For those seeking to escape the consumer-driven life-style, Reverend Billy will certainly become a saint.
