Wieuca Road Baptist Church team aids field personnel

Recently, Alan Keel, Jake Myers, and Danny Youngblood from Wieuca Road Baptist Church in Atlanta traveled to Sri Lanka to aid Hunter with projects funded by the Fellowship's Asian Response funds, to which Wieuca has contributed.

"While in Sri Lanka, we experienced the collaborative fruit of CBF partnerships," said Jake Myers, Wieuca Road Baptist Church coordinator for missional community and CBF church planter. "By finding niches to fill rather than working in competition with other nongovernmental organizations and faith-based groups, CBF Global Missions personnel, like Scott, are able to accomplish far more than would be thought possible otherwise. By focusing on the less flashy and often neglected areas of ministry, our Wieuca team observed first-hand the degree to which the Fellowship's missional presence in Sri Lanka is being felt."

your search. Ministers, the same is true for you. Please fill out that Ministers Information Form and help us help you. Now, it's even easier because CBF of Georgia has a new "face" on its web page, www.cbfga.org. This "face" may not be familiar to

The same is true for Churches Seeking Ministers and Ministers

you may not recognize what to do then because the process is now simpler.

Help Rebuild New Orleans

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was written to CBF/GA by Elmo Winters, Faith Bible Ministries, Inc., on Tuesday, July 12, 2006.

Dear Friends,

As most of you know our organization has been busy assisting the many victims of last year's hurricanes. Much has been done to help those who were displaced. We are now focusing on rebuilding New Orleans and believe the best way to do this is by rebuilding the churches. Starting this weekend several churches will be repaired along with the pastors' homes. We need your help in this endeavor. Maybe your church, company, or organization can come to New Orleans and work with us on this vital task. Pray and seek God's directions regarding this and let us know how you will assist us. Thank you in advance. See the attached flyer. You may wish to print it and post it where it can be viewed by others.
