Will You Help?

Greetings,

A little over two years ago Bannister Creek Church was planted by CBF/GA in Cumming. We are still very much a mission and seeking to be the presence of Christ in our growing community. My husband and I have enjoyed both the hard labor and the joy of first fruits as church planters. As the summer months approach I would like your church to consider a missions giving opportunity: please give a portion of your Vacation Bible School Offering to help provide a VBS for Bannister Creek Church. We are not requesting that you give from your mission's budget, but that the offerings given during VBS go toward our missions outreach in our community.

Whatever help you and your church can provide will be greatly appreciated.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Peace to You-

Special Letter of Invitation to The China Bible Exhibit

A significant event is going to take place in Georgia in just a couple of weeks that is too good to miss! The Church of China is bringing a major exhibit to Atlanta May 19-24. Through the Bible Ministry Exhibition, the Church of China will share their witness of the miraculous work that God has and continues to do in China. President Jimmy Carter, who played a major role in the reopening of the Church in China and in negotiation with Deng Xiaoping for allowing Bibles to CBF has played a major role in the arrangements for this historic event to be held at the Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist Church on Peachtree Street. The Opening Ceremony is May 19th and the event will run through May 24. The hours are from 10:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. Admission is free and so is the ample parking.

Come meet courageous Christian Friends from China as they share their treasures, their stories and their hearts. Each daily schedule will feature live performances by traditional Lisu Ethnic musicians, a concert Erhu (Chinese violin) musician, and a magnificent display of historical Bibles and artifacts, including the personal Bible of the last Empress of the Qing Dynasty.

Check out the website, www.BibleExhibitATL.org, for more information. If you are bringing a large group, please make a reservation online so that there will be ample timing for your visit.

Hope to see you there!

July 16-20

SOULfeast 2006

Lake Junaluska, NC

Featured preacher: Jorge Acevedo

Featured teacher: Stephanie Ford

At SOULfeast 2006 experience four days of "Sensing the Sacred in All of Life" through worship, workshops, and Sabbath rest. This is the conference for those who hunger for a deepening spirituality. SOULfeast focuses on the central practices of faith and provides rich settings for exploring these practices with new depth. The four days provide a true feast for your soul as you explore these topics: Christ, Creation, Creativity, Circumstance, and Community. Whether you are clergy or lay, youthful or mature in years, at SOULfeast you will find a wealth of opportunities to grow, learn, play, and rest. You will also gather an abundance of experiences and resources to take back to your local church setting. For details visit The Upper Room SoulFeast \(www.upperroom.org/soulfeast\).

Sermon Submissions

Many thanks for your sermon submissions for the book And Your Daughters Shall Prophesy: Sermons by Women in Baptist Life. I received many sermons related to Old Testament and New Testament texts, but I still need more sermons related to Contemporary Issues (Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Earth Day, World Hunger Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, etc.) and sermons related to the church year (Advent, Lent, Pentecost, etc.). If you have sermons you would like to submit in these categories, please do so by May 15. Email them to Karen Massey at massey\_k@mercer.edu. I look forward to receiving your submissions.

Online Curriculum Support Now Free with Teaching Guide

Smyth & Helwys announced that online curriculum support for dated curriculum no longer requires a subscription for access. Beginning May 2006, online premium support is offered through a new service named Smyth & Helwys Premium. Access to the online content is included free with every new Teaching Guide for Adult Formations, Uniform Series, and Youth Intersection. The Premium content offers teachers additional teaching helps, including extra Bible background materials, a current event illustration tied to the theme of the session, and a variety of other content designed to help set the context of the passage being studied. Teachers will access the Premium content through the new Caleb's Cafe service officially launched in March 2006. Caleb's Cafe groups give Sunday school classes and other small groups easy-to-use tools for staying in touch, sharing prayer requests, and coordinating activities and schedules. "Sunday school classes continue to be at the heart of most congregations. These groups are the core hubs for Bible study, ministry, and community for many people," explained David Cassady, Executive Vice President & Publisher of Smyth & Helwys. "We are thrilled to be able to combine the quality and depth of our printed Sunday school materials with fresh and relevant online tools. Together with Caleb's Cafe, classes now have powerful tools for learning about the Bible, and for growing as a community."
