church to reach both in and out -- to its at-risk members and also to neighbors who need assistance. Encourage your church (through the deacons, perhaps) to contact each homebound member to learn of needs and meet those needs. Actions may be as simple as sweeping off the porch or shoveling some snow or as extreme as helping someone relocate to a temporary location which has heat. If there are significant power outages in your community, your church may be able to serve as a temporary shelter with heat and water. If you would like to discuss these possibilities for your church, contact Tommy Deal at tdeal@cbfga.org or call him at 706-313-5066.
