

RAMADAN GREETINGS

In the pursuits of the heart...
None seems as common among us---or profoundly significant---
As our desire for union with what we feel is Holy.

The language is unimportant...the terminology matters little...
Since, deep inside the crevices of our being...
There is a gnawing hunger for that mystical and spiritual ‘Oneness’ with our Creator...
Some ‘connection’ with the Almighty...
‘Peace’ with our Maker...
A ‘friendship’ and ‘relationship’ with the Holy!

Such is the nobility of religion...such is the sanctity of faith.
We Christians, Jews and Muslims are drawn ‘Upward’

By
A sacred substance in the soul...
A DNA of the Holy that dwells in us!

In these days of Ramadan...
May the Divine, in whatever language and by whatever spelling,
Bless you in your upward reach
And
As the Holy reaches back to us
May we, by whatever action or deed,
Reach out to one another in friendship
And
In our connection with each other,
May there flow a sense of love and peace!

*Written by Rev. D. Wayne Martin on Behalf of
The Interfaith Task Force of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Georgia and in the name of
Members and Participating Churches of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Georgia
September 2010*